

Dr. Julio E. Arboleda-Flórez
MD, PhD, DLF, FRCPC, DABFP, FACFP, FABFE, DF CPA,
HFWASP, HMWPA, DLFAPA, EACP, FRSM
Professor Emeritus
Queen's University, Kingston, ON

Email: Dr. J. Arboleda-Florez

Professor Julio Arboleda-Flórez is a Canadian, born in Colombia. His basic medical degree is from Universidad Nacional of Colombia in Bogotá. He graduated in Psychiatry at the University of Ottawa, in Forensic Psychiatry at the University of Toronto and in Epidemiology (PhD) at the University of Calgary. He is Fellow Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, Diploma of the American Board of Forensic Psychiatry and Diplôme de Langue Française - École Internationale de Langue et Civilization Françaises (Paris). He is an Emeritus American College of Psychiatrists; Distinguished Fellow Canadian Psychiatric Association; Distinguished Life Fellow American Psychiatric Association; Fellow American College of Forensic Psychiatry, American Board of Forensic Examiners, and Royal Society of Medicine; Honorary Fellow World Association of Social Psychiatry, Member World Psychiatric Association (WPA) and Asociación Ecuatoriana de Psiquiatría; Member Emeritus, Forensic Department, Associação Brasileira de Psiquiatria; Honorary Life President Forensic Section WPA; Rectoral Medal and Honorary Professor Universidad de Chile; Visiting Professor, Universidad del Bosque (Bogotá) and Adjunct Professor at University of Ottawa.

He is Director of Queen's/PAHO/WHO Regional Unit for Research and Training in Psychiatric Epidemiology; Member of Committee WPA; Consultant, WPA Task Force on the Destigmatization of Psychiatry; Member, Panel of Experts – Strategy and Action Plan Mental Health for the Americas, Pan American Health Organization (PAHO); Member, Research Ethics Review Board PAHO; Corresponding Member, Ethics Committee, American Psychiatric Association; Temporary consultant World Health Organization; past-President, International Academy of Law and Mental Health, World Association for Social Psychiatry and Canadian Academy of Psychiatric Epidemiology; past Chairman of the Province of Ontario, Forensic Psychiatric Services Expert Advisory Panel and Member, Ontario Review Board; Editor-in-Chief The Open Law Journal, Member of Editorial Boards of national and international medical journals; Guest Editor special topics Canadian Journal of Psychiatry and Current Opinion in Psychiatry and Reviewer in research granting bodies. He has received multiple awards and distinctions.

Professor Arboleda-Flórez is an international speaker, researcher on mental health services, psychiatric ethics and psychiatric epidemiology, author of books, multiple chapters and over 250 scientific papers and technical reports on mental health services, public mental health, mental health ethics, forensic psychiatry and psychiatric epidemiology. He is fluent in Spanish, English and French and has reading and oral comprehension in Italian and Portuguese and intermediate reading in German.