12:00–1:00 pm Alexandra Ruhr, M.D.
Psychiatry Resident
Queen's University

Supervisor: Dr. D. Ayonrinde

"Who will come out to play today, the Rottweiler or the Retriever? A psychodynamic exploration."

Queen's Psychiatry Grand Rounds is a self-approved group learning activity (Section 1) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of The Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada

Upcoming Rounds: December 4, 11 & 18 VIA ZOOM

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Dr. A. Ruhr: “Who will come out to play today, the Rottweiler or the Retriever? A psychodynamic exploration.”

Participants will:

1. Explore emerging themes, challenges and implications for future work with a psychodynamic therapy client.
2. Discuss relevant concepts and theoretical frameworks, as they apply to Objective 1.
3. Explore some of the ethical implications inherent in our work as therapists.
4. Introduce the concept of a Buddhist Psychological Model (Grabovac, Lau & Willett, 2011) as one potential avenue for grounding ourselves in this challenging work.
